Bond&Devick Wealth Partners Signatory of PRI – Principles of Responsible Investing

St. Louis Park MN, November 1, 2018

Bond&Devick Wealth Partners is proud to announce they are officially a signatory of PRI—Principles of Responsible Investing. This commitment is aligned with their BCorp Certification and their promise to represent the financial planning industry responsibly with their investment strategies and treatment of their clients, employees, environment, and community.

In signing the Principles, Bond&Devick made this promise: “we as investors publicly commit to adopt and implement them, where consistent with our fiduciary responsibilities. We also commit to evaluate the effectiveness and improve the content of the Principles over time. We believe this will improve our ability to meet commitments to beneficiaries as well as better align our investment activities with the broader interests of society.”

Visit the PRI website at www.unpri.org to find out more about the 6 principles and better understand why Bond&Devick feels it is important to make this commitment.

Bond&Devick Wealth Partners is an independent goals-based financial planning firm. They are a fiduciary, which means they have a moral and legal obligation to put their clients’ interests first. Since the firm’s establishment in 1982, they have been proud to help hundreds of clients plan for and reach their dreams.
